Teaching and Training the next generation of pastor-teacher-evangelists in Eastern Europe and Central Asia

At the Eurasian Mission College - Kazan in Tatarstan, Russia.

As you may know my April teaching trip to the Kazan Mission College was postponed because of the Icelandic volcanic ash cloud. I am excited to tell you that all plans to re-schedule for this September have gone smoothly and I fly on Friday 3rd.

I will be teaching the new intake of students in their first two weeks of College. The subjects are The Gospel of Mark, The Book of Acts and the History and Principles of Christian Mission. Please see the attached Eurasian Ministries summer newsletter with reference to the new students. During the first week we will be recording the personal testimony of each student and these will be made available on line. It will be very thrilling to hear what brought them to the College and the obstacles they have overcome.

While I am away the family will continue with their work and mission. Please pray for Juliet teaching RS at Monkton Prep School, Emma teaching at Cranleigh School and leading music at Cranleigh Baptist Church, Mark at Cornhill Bible Training and Grace Community Church, Bedford and Rosie at S'ton Uni PGCE/French and Above Bar Church.

We had some lovely time together over the summer ... peacefully down by the Dart River, Dartmoor and, more playfully, in it.

Following the September trip there is a request for four further teaching trips in 2011 each at an approximate cost of £1,552. If you or a set of friends, church group or business would like to be involved in helping to sponsor a trip please be in touch with Graham or directly with Eurasian Ministries – (Graham Herbert in Kazan) 27 Hoynors Close, Danbury, Chelmsford, CM3 4RL 01245 227 941 www.eurasian-ministries.org email: tim.mcmahon@eurasian-ministries.org
