

Pre-trip Prayer News for January 2011

Graham Herbert:

Teaching and Training the next generation of pastor-teacher-evangelists in Eastern Europe and Central Asia

At the Eurasian Mission College - Kazan in Tatarstan, Russia.

I return to the Kazan Mission College on Saturday 8th January for two weeks of Biblical Studies - teaching the First Year Students shown above. Yes, they look young but their ages actually span 4 decades! More significantly they come from 6 different Central Asian Countries and are personally committed to mission in their own countries. Their Christian commitment is impressive and they have a desire to learn and grow and serve.

Student Names - not in any order: Azamat Mansur Lola Asror Roman Victor Ksenia Denis Yana Akyl Natalia Christina Victor Sasha Nulifar Aigerim Pavel Nurali Ilya Nadasha.

I will be teaching Genesis-Exodus-Leviticus-Numbers-Deut in the first week and the New Testament Letters in the second week. We will survey each of the Bible books within the two sections but study in detail the early chapters of Genesis and Romans.

The early chapters of Genesis set out all the principles for godly life and living. In particular we will study the character of God and the principles given on the subject of marriage and families. In the NT Letters the focus will be on 'What Christians believe and why' and the kernel of the NT - Romans 3:21-26.

In addition to the lecture programme there are always many opportunities to encourage the believers at a personal and small group level. I shall enjoy being with the students on two Sundays in their Kazan churches.

Next teaching trip: March 18 – April 9
